

FLP3

Building a Performance Culture

3 Days

Successful leaders facilitate and enable staff to perform effectively. Participants learn how to empower teams and create a positive working environment. You'll have the opportunity to coach peers, provide tailored feedback, and receive ongoing feedback throughout the course. Building environments where collaboration, transparency and feedback are a natural state is a major focus of this course.

PRE-COURSE PREPARATION

- Complete the Leadership Legacy exercise to gain insight into how your peers view your leadership, direct reports and leader

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Managers, supervisors or team leaders
- Those looking to build a high-performing team
- Those aspiring to a supervisory or managerial role and would like a better grasp of what is expected of them as a leader

POST-COURSE REPORT

Based on your course-by-course personal action plans, complete and submit a comprehensive Personal Accountability Report that will guide the adoption of new knowledge, skills and behaviours in the workplace following completion of the program.

A capstone exercise provides a summary review of the concepts covered throughout the program.
